General Comments:	Marirose used a collaborative review to help students prepare for an upcoming exam. The students participated actively. A few suggestions might be: Use higher level thinking in the review and avoid the use of the same multiple choice answers for different questions. Take the time to expand the game by discussing answers that seemed more difficult for the students. Make sure all are participating by rotating through each triad of students. Overall, this was a good review session.
